

Dear Hanumat Presaka Swami, please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I apologize for taking so long to write back ① to you. I take longer to do things, and time seems like it has speeded up. That makes a nice ① sandwich, with too much to do in the middle.

I got out some paper to try to write something like a column, but I couldn't think of any thing. You write journals and draw pictures with spontaneity. The harder I try to be spontaneous, the less it looks like it.

Clare made a video of Sita in the Asoka Garden, and entered it in the Berkeley Film and Video Festival. It was on YouTube for a while. She then made some improvements. I haven't figured out how to send it, but I can show it on ② my phone. Now she took the dancing demigods, for the story of the Tulasī Plant, to make a video. It's already a video as part of the story of the Tulasī Plant. Maybe we can add some more puppets to it, jugglers maybe.

This is taking more time. I tried to find your last Diary that you sent me. There are a lot, and they got all mixed up. You are looking at 1024 to quit your body. I don't know when my time will be up. It could be any day though, the way I feel. In any case, it has been an honor to have had your association. Please forgive my offenses.

Hare Krishna,

Rokanatha dasa
