Here we are at New Jagannatha Puri ( N J P ), the Bay Area's Eastern base for Krishna Consciousness. You now have seva (service) for the Western Dhama (Temple). Depending on your schedule, this will take at least 3 days of performance.

By now you should be settled at your base camp in or near to the Temple facility with all your essentials to get you through the next few days. Personal equipment and tools for the variety of work here, a decent water Container and some Rama energy bars recommended for sustenance, also Prasadam (meals) will be scheduled too.

Suggested items to have; Sleeping bag, charged cell phone, bathing towels, etcetera, proper clothing, Flexible work Gloves, durable pants and shirts. The bay area is a 3 season environment; it is hot to cold daily, use clothing layers and have walking shoes and/or boots.

Also tools, charged cell-phone, Head Lamp/ Flashlight, battery packs, impact screw gun with charged batteries, and sockets for assembly, Multi -point screw driver, Standard (Vise grip) pliers, Adjustable (Crescent) wrench, Hammer, Tape measure, Spirit Level, a bucket and/or box to carry your tools.

Once you're out at Golden Gate Park remember to keep an eye on things, there can be thievery. Stay street-wise while on the grounds of GGP, get to know the Park staff and Rangers they are your allies at this time.

As they say, keep calm and carry on. Self- discipline is the surviving factor here and of course Sri Bhagavan's mercy. Get ready for a transcendental event, just a reminder that no matter how much we plan, Lord Krishna is making arrangements for us all.
